

Exploring

Faith for Rights Module 6: Minority Rights

Question:	Possible Actions:
How can discrimination against minorities be redressed through religion? Through faith actors?
What should the reaction of a religious leader be when facing a situation of discrimination against a minority?
How should the term 'minority' be defined?
What role does 'religion' play in the context of minority rights?
What is the relationship between "long established" religious minorities and those recently arrived in a given country, for example as immigrants or asylum seekers?
How can law enforcement officials and immigration officers be trained on religious and belief diversity?
How can faith actors contribute to countering discrimination against migrants?	